Touching new dining heights...

It used to be that a basic outdoor dining set meant a redwood picnic table and benches in the backyard. But not anymore. Today's outdoor dining sets raise the bar on seating - new dining heights offers everything. Perhaps the best feature of outdoor dining sets is their flexibility. Outdoor tables come in a wide variety of sizes, shapes, and uses for your specific needs. Each outdoor furniture dining set is specifically manufactured for outdoor use. All Weather Woven Furniture results in strong but light weight furniture that can withstand any weather conditions. It is completely waterproof, frost proof and UV resistant so the colour will not fade in the sun. Outdoor dining furniture can be kept outside year round. CANE INDIA dining sets feature superb quality materials for extreme durability and elegance.

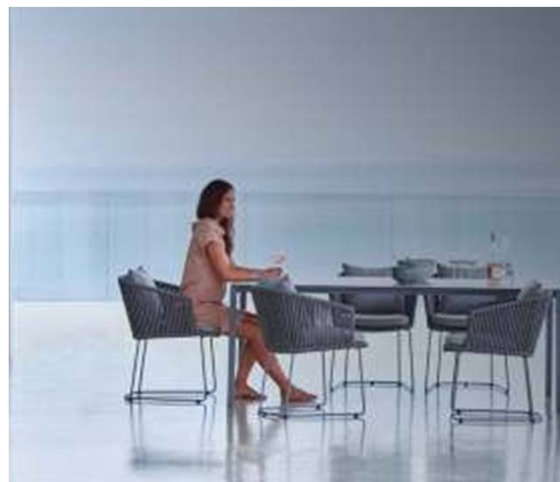

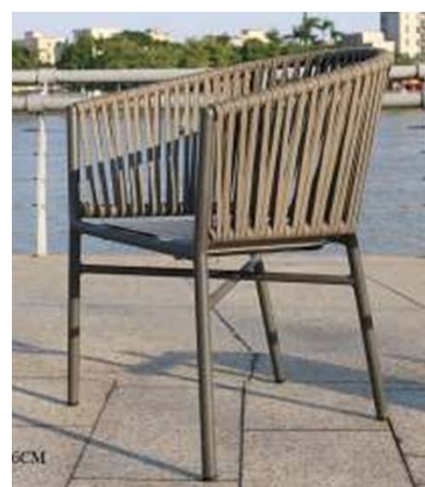

Choose from luxury patio sets and dine outdoors in luxury and comfort.
